THE MOMENT OF TRUTH

Bringing a hospitality mindset to family onboarding

Eva Ghewij, Director of Admissions & Marketing – Collège Beau Soleil

A brand-new ship.

A dream holiday.

And an unexpected first impression.

IMAGINE THIS SCENARIO

The leaving guests

were not happy.

IMAGINE THIS SCENARIO

The leaving guests were not happy.

Their experience became our first impression.

IMAGINE THIS SCENARIO

Then the crew did something unexpected.

IMAGINE THIS SCENARIO

Then the crew did something unexpected.

They told the truth.

IMAGINE THIS SCENARIO

Guests did not stay

because of perfection.

IMAGINE THIS SCENARIO

Guests did not stay

because of perfection.

They stayed because of honesty, care and flexibility.

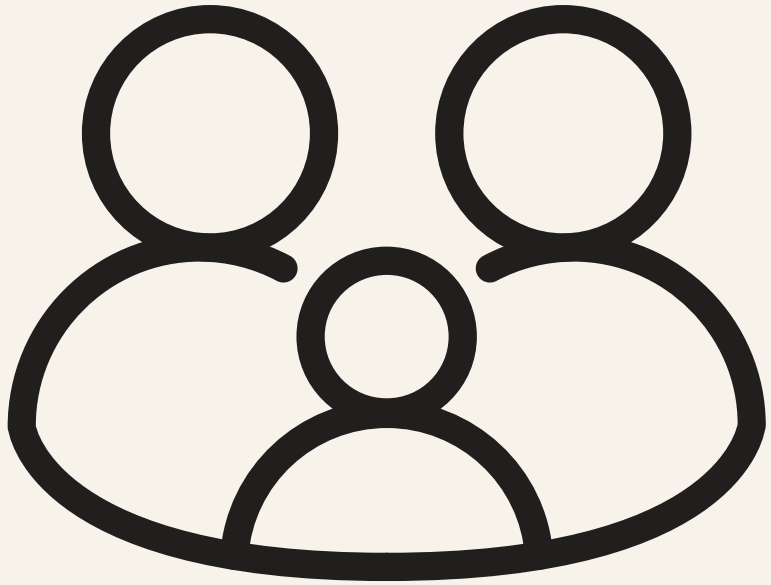
CHAPTER 1 · THE PROMISE

THE PROMISE

WE MAKE

An offer is accepted. The real relationship begins.

THE PROMISE



Families do not just choose a school.

They entrust us with someone they love.

THE PROMISE

Three questions behind every form

01

Will they know my child?

Personal recognition

01

Will they know my child?

Personal recognition

02

Will they tell me the truth?

Credible communication

Credible communication

03

Will they be there?

Dependable care

THE PROMISE

The prospectus is a promise

Onboarding is the first proof.

THE PROMISE

Parents do not see our departments

They experience one school.

WHAT HOSPITALITY UNDERSTANDS

Great service is often invisible.

HOSPITALITY

The Hospitality Mindset

01

ANTICIPATE

Answer before the anxious question.

02

PERSONALIZE

Know the person, not just the booking.

03

RECOVER

Own the problem and respond well.

HOSPITALITY

A seamless experience is carefully coordinated

The backstage work creates the frontstage calm.

HOSPITALITY

Personalisation is not extravagance

It is the feeling of being recognised.

HOSPITALITY

When things go wrong, show your character

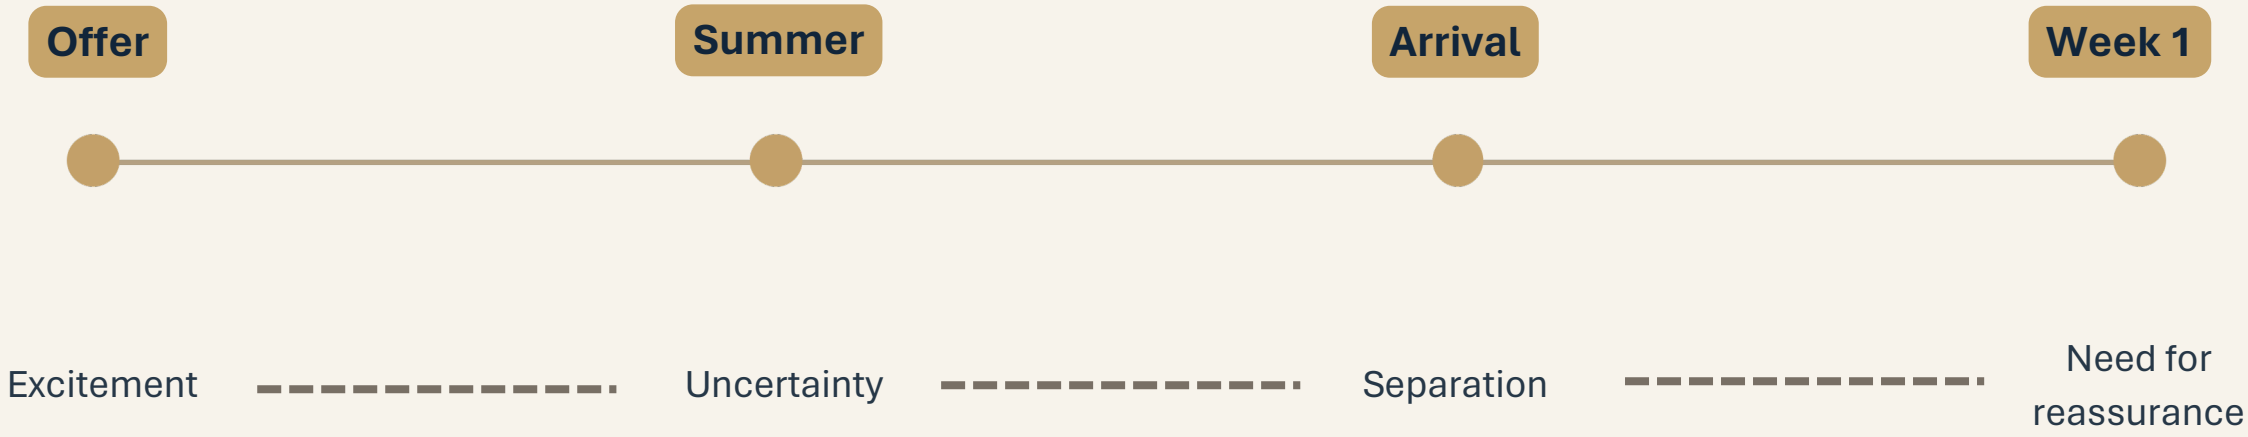
Clarity + ownership + a realistic next step.

THE INVISIBLE FAMILY JOURNEY

What the school sees is not always what the family feels.

FAMILY JOURNEY

One journey. Two realities.



Silence
is not neutral

In uncertainty, people fill in the gaps themselves.

FAMILY JOURNEY

Arrival day is not a registration exercise

It is a goodbye, a beginning and a test of trust.

FAMILY JOURNEY

What happens
after the goodbye?

Belonging must outlast the Welcome.

CHAPTER 4 BELONGING

FROM WELCOME TO BELONGING

A family should feel part of something, not processed by something.

BELONGING

Build the surrounding School Family

01

A familiar face

A named human contact

03

A trusted rhythm

Updates that make sense

BELONGING

The smallest detail has BIGGEST emotional weight

A name remembered. A question anticipated. A handover done well.

BELONGING

Culture is what happens

when admissions steps away

Every colleague is part of the welcome.

BELONGING

A good onboarding journey creates confidence

A great one creates connection.

DESIGN THE MOMENTS THAT MATTER

Five practical principles for any school.

THE FRAMEWORK

Before Arrival

01

Promise

Align expectations with reality.

AUDIENCE REFLECTION

Think of one moment in your family journey

What does your school do? What does the family feel?

Back to that brand-new ship...

The crew could not offer perfection. They offered honesty and care.

THE CLOSING

Families may choose us

for what we promise

They trust us because of how we respond.

THANK YOU

The moment of truth is not one moment

It is every moment we make the promise real.
